

Studying and living in Australia has also given me education and experience at an international level. It has made me more confident and knowledgeable! The period I studied here is one of the most important times in my whole life