

If you are planning to study English in Australia – you are planning to have a real adventure! An adventure that will not only benefit your studies, but will give you a new, enriched perspective on life. Australia is a very popular destination for international students who want to study English in a safe, supportive yet exciting atmosphere.

Australia has a very high standard of living at a relatively low cost. This means you can enjoy lower tuition fees than you would in other countries where English is the national language.

Teaching standards are high and Australia has quality national standards for English language training.

To learn communicative English you need to be in a relaxed supportive learning environment. In Australia you can live in a friendly atmosphere where Australian students and families take the time to make friends with you and give you the personal recognition you deserve. You can choose from an extensive range of high quality English Language Schools in interesting city, coastal and country locations.

Australia is a vibrant multicultural country and it is a land of great contrasts too. It has beautiful clean beaches, safe cities, great climate and even snowfields in winter! You can meet other interesting people from all over the world who are living and studying in Australia. And there's also the opportunity to combine study, work and travel by choosing a Working Holiday Visa.

Whatever your reason for wanting to learn or improve your English language skills- career, work, personal or travel purposes- there is no better place to study than Australia.
